STATESBORO, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1953

"If You Can Keep It"

Auctioning of the 1953 flue-cured tobacco crop will begin on Thursday, July 16, when sales begin on the markets of the Georgia-Tobacco Belt.

The date was fixed in Raleigh, N. C., by the board of governors of the Bright Belt Warehouse Association on Monday of this week on the recommendation of a 15 member committee made up of five growers representatives, five warehousemen and five buying representatives.

Opening dates for other belts were fixed as follows: North Carolina and South Carolina, Eastern, August 20; North Carolina Middle, September 1; Virginia-North Carolina Old Belt, September 14.

The date set for the 1953 opening for the Georgia-Florida belt comes six days earlier than last year when sales began on July 21.

As Benjamin Franklin left Independence Hall, a woman asked him, "Mr. Franklin, what kind of a government have you given us?" He answered gravely, "A Republic, madam, if you can keep it."

In pointing this Independence Day scene in Homewood, U.S.A., the artist, E. Franklin Witmark, has found an echo of Franklin's historic scene of Magna Charta, the signal light on old North Church.

The warning in a quotation from the post William Cullen Bryant, "The historic scene of Magna Charta, the signal light on old North Church," the embattled "rebels" of a great new nation—symbolize the hard-won victories, and the priceless freedom, which, on Independence Day 1953, are given every Homelander in the land—not done to celebrate, but to protect.

The group approached the observance with a new reverence and solemnity fitting the founding of this great nation.

The program this year is being worked out by Mrs. Buford Knight, Al Sutherland, Jimmy Gunter, and Rev. Frederick Wilson.

Sue Whaley and S. M. Sparks of Bulloch County were named as district representatives on the Georgia Teachers College will read the Declaration of Independence as the highlight of the second annual community-wide observance of Independence Day on Saturday, July 4.

The observance will be held at the First Baptist Church on Saturday morning, July 4, at 10 o'clock. It is planned to last only thirty minutes.

The feature of the observance will be the display of the framed copy of the Declaration of Independence which was presented to the county-wide committee last year by Congressman Prince H. Preston. The entire program will revolve around this great document.

A color guard will be made up of members of the local National Guard Unit.

Miss Shirley Helms will sing "The Star Spangled Banner." Julian Tucker will sing a patriotic song with Tommy Singletary providing the trumpet obbligato.

William Smith will be the organist. The Rev. John B. Priddy Jr. will give the invocation, and the Rev. George Lovell will give the benediction.

This is the second year that Independence Day has been observed here in a county-wide celebration. It was last year that the idea was conceived by the Bulloch County Ministerial Association. It was presented to the various groups of Statesboro and Bulloch County and received approval and hearty endorsement. Abandoning the firework type of celebration

There will be an all-day working at Upper Black Creek Church on Wednesday, July 8. The committee will be at the church yard working on the church yard. All who are interested are urged to be there and take the firework type of celebration

W. L. McElveen Re-elected Brooklet School Trustee To Begin 29th Year

By Mrs. John A. Robertson

Last Friday at the election of the Brooklet School trustees, W. L. McElveen was re-elected to begin his 29th year as a trustee of the school. Mr. McElveen, known to many friends as "Mr. Linton," was first elected to serve as a trustee in 1925, and he has served most faithfully during the past 28 years. In the election last Friday he was elected for a 4-year term.

William Cromley was also re-elected for a 4-year term. He is the "junior member" of the board of trustees. The other members of the board are W. Lee McElveen, chairman, T. E. Davis, and R. C. Hall.

KNIGHT—ROACH

Miss Jacqueline Knight, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Jackson Knight and the late Mr. Knight, and William Alex Roach, Jr., of Savannah, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roach, were married Sunday afternoon, June 28, in the Leefield Baptist Church. The Rev. Carl E. Cassidy performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. D. Lee presented the program of wedding music, and Mrs. Cleon Miley of Glenville sang the national selections, "Because," "O Promise Me," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The church was decorated with white gladioli, potted plants, and other greenery and candelabra with lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Ulmer Knight, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of chiffon tulle and Chantilly lace over duchesse satin, with sweetheart neck line, and the skirt ended in a waltz-length train. She wore a crown of orange blossoms and pearls, to which was attached a fingertip veil of nylon tulle. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid surrounded by white carnations. Miss Sue Knight, of Augusta, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Betty Knight, Miss Betty Lovett of Statesboro, and Mrs. Joseph Leobe of Savannah. The bridesmaids wore a floor-length dress of nylon tulle over taffeta, with strapless shirred bodice and full gathered skirt. The maid-of-honor's dress was of yellow. Each one wore a stole, and carried bouquets of vari-colored asters.

The tiny flower girl, June Grande of Augusta, wore a floor-length dress of yellow nylon, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds.

Jack Roach of Savannah was best man, and the ushers were Thurmond Burke of Statesboro, Edward Knight and Horace Knight.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dress of blue with Chantilly lace top, with pink hat and pink corsage.

The groom's mother was dressed in navy, with pink accessories and pink corsage.

Following the wedding a lovely reception was held at the home of the bride.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Harry Lee, Mrs. Frank Richardson of Statesboro, Mrs. Robert Brack of Port Republic, Cliff Bradley of Statesboro, Mrs. Cecil Scott, Mrs. Neil Scott, Mrs. Ulmer Knight, Mrs. H. E. Knight and Misses Ruth Lee, Barbara Jones, Jimmie Lou Williams, Dot Knight, Janelle Knight, Ginny Lee, Beverly NeSmith, Sandra Williams, Walter Lou Scott and

MORE—ANDERSON

Miss Bessie Moore of Atlanta and Brooklet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roland Moore and Charles Clinton Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Annie Anderson of Jacksonville, Fla., were married last Saturday afternoon, June 27, at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. W. H. Anstey performed the double-ring ceremony in the Brooklet Methodist Church.

The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, greenery, and 4 seven branched candelabra.

Mrs. W. D. Lee presented the wedding music and Miss Jo Ann Denmark sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Always."

Bulloch County FARM NEWS

PEANUT SUPPORT PRICE EXPECTED TO AVERAGE $10 ABOVE LAST YEAR

Government support prices on this year's peanut crop is expected to give farmers a net price of $10.00 to $12.00 per ton above last year. This information was disclosed by H. L. Wingate, Georgia Farm Bureau Federation President, following an announcement by the U.S.D.A. of the 1953 peanut support price program.

Georgia Farm Bureau leaders had been conferring with top USDA officials since last December in an effort to work out a favorable program on this year's crop. Farmers, last year, received only 88 per cent of parity after deducts. The announced average price for the 1953 crop has been announced at $237.60 per ton.

Farmers will have a choice of three methods of storage under which the support price loan may be obtained. The 1953 crop may be placed in on-farm storage, warehouse storage, or in co-operative warehouses. Cooperative warehouses are those owned or leased by the Georgia-Florida-Alabama Peanut Association.

G.F.B.F. officials report that the only deduction from support price will be (1) Service fee for making loans, (2) Federal State Inspection fee, (3) allowance for shrinkage and grade loss while in farm storage, and (4) certain warehouse fees for peanuts warehouse-stored.

Commodity Credit Corporation will absorb any shrinkage and grade loss resulting from loans on warehouse stored peanuts. An allowance will be made for shrinkage and grade losses for on-farm stored peanuts.

The Georgia Farm Bureau's State Peanut Committee was in session last week to map plans for an effective long-range peanut program." Wingate said.
